

DAAD Training Module: Academic Research Skills

Trainer:

Bahi, Riham Dr.

Target Group:

PhD Candidates

Language Of Instruction:

English

Duration:

1 Day (12am - 6pm GMT +1)

CONTENT

This workshop aims at equipping participants with necessary academic skills, such as reading, writing, presentation and research skills. These skills are essential for their research work. Topics covered include: timed reading, note-taking, paraphrasing, proper citation, writing for publishing.

LEARNING OUTCOME

- Read articles/books fast and strategically
- Communicate ideas clearly in different written and oral formats
- Avoid serious violations such as plagiarism that could jeopardize written work
- Know the characteristics of a good, publishable paper.

ORGANIZATIONAL REMARKS

Training methods: Presentation of theoretical part, exercises, open discussions, self-assessment, case study, group work and action plans.

TRAINER PROFILE

Dr. Riham Bahi is an Associate Professor of international relations at the Faculty of Economics and Political Science, Cairo University.

© Riham Bahi